Department of Library and Information Center

Session 2018 -2019

Activity : Career Guidance & Personality Development.

Objectives:

1. To inform the students about what is personality development and how to develop the personality.
2. To explain the students what is the role of interest and liking in developing the personality.

Methodology :

The department of Library and Information centre of Sharad Pawar Arts and Commerce College, Gadchandur organized the program of career Guidance and Personality development. The main attraction of this program was the famous competitive Examination Prof. Sanjay Nathe from Nagpur, delivered the speech and gave career guidance and personality development. The president of the program was Dr. Anandrao Adbale and the guest was the Principal Sanjaykumar Singh.

The guide, Sanjay Nathe explained the students the meaning of career and how the career should be. He told the students the ability, liking and interest plays the crucial role in choosing the career because if the student choose his career according to his ability and liking he becomes successful. To ensure quality the training is necessary and for this intelligence and personality development program is needed.

Outcome :

- 1) The importance of self liking and interest is required for choosing the career and what is personality development and personality is developed through self liking and self-interest.
- 2) The students became aware about the selection of career according to self interest and liking and to make career successful the hard work is necessary.
- 3) Students knew that personality development is nothing but the development of dormant qualities which make the personality-versatile.
